Easton loves physical education with Mr. Eck and to play games at recess too. He is a leader and sets a good example for others. Easton is helpful and likes it when things are neat in his area. I can always count on him to do the right thing. Brekken is quite an outdoorsman. I love his enthusiasm for hunting and fishing, and he usually has a good story to share! His classmates voted for him to be our Student of the Month. They seem to appreciate his kindness and good manners as much as I do. One student* remarked, "I like Brekken because he is kind to everyone." Another said, "I like Brekken because he is a good friend." Congratulations Brekken!

Student: Colton Anderson, First Grade

Parents: Colton and Casey Anderson     Siblings: Easton and Clayton

Comments: Colton comes to school eager, excited, happy and always ready to start another day. He enjoys his classmates. He enjoys sharing his hobbies and activities that he does with his family. Colton is often the quiet one in the room but when called on he shares his ideas, opinions and comments with confidence. He works hard on all his assignments and is willing to go above and beyond to learn the reading and math activities for the day. Colton is a great student example for other first graders. Way to go Colton. Keep up the good work.

Student: Elias Haugan, Second Grade

Parents: Darrick and Carrie Haugan     Siblings: Bailey and Avery

Comments: Quiet and hard-working are the first two words that come to mind when describing Elias. Elias is a very quiet student who always listens and does what he is asked to do. He puts a great amount of effort into everything he does. He always completes his work on time. As soon as he completes an assignment, you will find him reading a book silently while waiting for others to finish. The second grade class nominated Elias for Student of the Month for several reasons. Here are a few comments from his classmates: "Elias is nice and doesn't hurt people." "He is never mean. He's been my best friend for three years." "Elias is nice to everyone. He participates in class and raises his hand." "He's nice and helpful." Congratulations Elias on being chosen as second grade's Student of the Month. I'm super proud of you!

He always completes assignments on time and works hard to do his best. We all enjoy his great imagination. He is a deep thinker and shares many insightful ideas! Congratulations Auggie!

Student: Samantha Johnson-Colborn, Fourth Grade

Comments: Samantha knows how to work with others. She is a great teammate and works well with her classmates. She enjoys sharing entertaining stories about living in Alaska. She is very creative and artistic when working in class. She is a quiet thinker but boy are her ideas great. She was a positive addition to our class this year. Way to go Samantha!

Student: Hannah Weems, Fifth Grade

Parents: Andrew & Ashley     Siblings: Nathan, Leah, & Lauren

Comments: Hannah is such an amazing person, and it is with my great pleasure to nominate her as our 5th grade Student of the Month. When describing Hannah several things come to mind: She is kind, sweet, studious, and responsible. Her kindness comes through in her actions and words when she's working with her peers. Her smile says it all. She is studious, because she works hard on all her assignments, making sure her best effort is put into every assignment she does. Hannah is quiet, but a leader in our classroom. She can be counted on to bring great ideas, and a positive attitude to our classroom. Congratulations, Hannah, you deserve to be our Student of the Month!!

Student: Timothy Chandler, Sixth Grade

Siblings: Emma & Natasha

Comments: Tim is our nomination for the 6th grade January Student of the Month. He is a creative young man, who has a gift for Art. He is able to think "outside of the box" and has an interesting perspective on many topics. Tim is also a fantastic reader. In his free time, Tim will usually be found reading an adventurous book. Another reason why Tim deserves this nomination, is because he is respectful to his peers and teachers. He is well-mannered and easy to get along with. Congratulations, Tim, on this well-deserved accomplishment!
